MEMORANDUM TO COUNSEL RE:

Robinson v. Moore
Civil No. AMD 01-2329

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MARYLAND
DEPUTY

As you are aware, and in accordance with my memorandum to counsel dated December 20, 2002, no dispositive motions having been filed in this case, the case is now ready for calendaring for a non-jury trial. Accordingly, the remaining schedule shall be as follows:

- The parties may file (but are not required to file) pre-trial legal memoranda and/or proposed findings and conclusions by the end-of-business on or before Tuesday, February 11, 2003;
- If needed (you should advise me immediately if you believe a conference is necessary), a pretrial conference shall be held in chambers on Thursday, February 13, 2003, at 5:15 p.m.; and
- Non-Jury Trial (presumptively two days) will commence on Wednesday, March 19, 2003, 11:30 a.m.

Obviously, plaintiff's counsel should immediately prepare the appropriate writs for the transportation to Baltimore of plaintiff and any incarcerated witnesses needed for trial. As such arrangements often require considerable lead time, counsel should not delay in finalizing the necessary details with state corrections officials and the office of the United States Marshal.

I look forward to your presentations in this case.

Despite the informal nature of this memorandum, it is an order of court and the clerk shall docket it as same.

Very truly yours,

Andre M. Davis
United States District Judge
